New York, (July 29, 2022) – Jason Jin, a portfolio manager at VanEck, unfortunately passed away Tuesday at the age of 42.

Jason joined the firm in 2005, just ahead of the launch of VanEck’s first ETF, supporting and researching funds and trading ideas in the business’ early days. He moved to the firm’s equity ETF portfolio management team in 2007, working alongside Peter Liao, VanEck’s Head of Equity ETF Portfolio Management. Jason was a named portfolio manager on many of VanEck’s equity ETFs. Prior to this role, Jason was responsible for equity and fixed income research, supervising extensive research in the intraday pricing and trading of certain over-the-counter fixed income securities.

“Jason was a valued member of our ETF investment team,” said Adam Phillips, Chief Operating Officer of VanEck’s ETF business. “Our deepest sympathies go out to the entire Jin family.”

His funeral service will be held in Flushing, NY. Jason is survived by his parents Shu Kang Jin and Zhao Zhang Zhu, fiancé Wendy Shyu, and friends.
